To the question in the following letter, THE LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE RAILROAD. REPORT CONFIRMED. There has been a report Editors Louisville Courier: I see in your paper of this merging extracts from the Nashville papers, and your comments, justifying the seizure of the part of the Louisville and Nashville Railread in the State of Tennessee, and the will Railread in the State of Tennessee, and the freight and down and up passenger trains on the like instant, by a military force under the command of Gen. Anderson. It is assumed by you and the Nashyille papers that the engines and the nash and expert that the engines and the nash and the Nashyille papers that the engines and the nash and the Nashyille papers that the engines and the nash and the Nashyille papers that the engines and the nash and the Nashyille papers that the engines and the nash At Pittsburg at noon yesterday the river was falling, with 20 inches water in the channel.

At Cincinnatia the same the river was falling slowly, baving fallen an inch the previous 21 hours.

The Posshontas returned from Evansville yesterday with a fair freight list, consisting for the most part of tobacco.

The Lindon, the new Henderson mailbeat, returned from that pert yesterday with 200 hogshads telesco, considerable other freight, and elarge aumber of passengers.

ome extent, the employees.

The assumption that the Nashville and is entito a greater number of engines end cars than been employed on the road in that State, on ount of the stock taken and the contribution the Louisville papers as to the late se Zuro trains on the Louisville and Nashville Railron have not been full and have been very incorrec State aid, is also will hour any just foundation. The main line of the road has already cost about 6,500 per mile, and the stock subscription in The main line of the road has already cost about $36,500 per mile, and the stock subscription in the State of Tennessee, amounts to $600,000, and making the cost of the forty-five miles in the State of Tennessee upwards of $180,000 more than Tennessee contributed to the road, if we distribute the cost pro-rata, throughout the whele route. In fact, including the tunnels, bridge over the Cumberland river, right of way and cost of depot greunds, the cost of the farry-five miles in Tennessee is nour $10,000 per mile greater then the pro-rata cost of the whole road.

About the 1st day of July Gen. Anderson, of Tennessee, made an order on Mr. Baldwin, the depot agent of the company at Nashville, that the company should keep a greater amount of their motive power and rolling stock at the Nashville ord of the road, which order was communicated to the Superintendent at Louisville and by him to the President. There being no provision in the charter to the effect that the company should be superintendent at Louisville and live not been full and have been very incorrect, I have carefully ascertained the facts from the set who are cenversant with them and now sold them for your use. I had bopel some of the managers or officers of the road would ere this have given an eccount of the matter, but as I have seen nee have taken the pains te get a true and impartial account of the matter, which yeu can use if you see it. THE BLOCKADE AND FOREIGN POWERS -lon, the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, wrete as follows on the 5th July: Since the President's message was prepared highly important information has been received by the government from our ministers at London and Paris, in regard to our relations, with these by the government from our ministers at Londan and Paris, in regard to our relations with those powers. The government is further assured that the British and French guvernments will respect the blockade of the ports and sea coast of the second States—cotton or no collon. It is believed to be the policy of the Confederate government to accumulate e milion or more of bales of collon at the port of New Orleans by October or November, and then offer it for sale to those whose necessities will compel them to obtain it by some means or other.

PROFESSOR 8. THALBERG, PLANIST.

ears on his arrival lu the United States be was rapidly hecoming gray, but on applying Wood's Halr Restordive his hair soon re-covered its original bue. CHARLES CARDEW, IS NASSAU ETREET, N. Y., says the gray halrs on Lis wife's head were, after a few weeks' trial, thinned into a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair.

A. C. PAYMOND, BATH, MAINE, says he Is now sixty years old, and his hair and whickers were two-thirds grav, but by the new of two bestles of Ke terative, the gray hairs have disappeared, both on bis head and five, and is more solt and glossy than for twenty-five years previous. His wife, at the age of fifty-lwo, has used it with the same effect.

FINLEY JOHNSON, ESQ., NEW ORLEANS,

T. L. MOESE, LEBANON, KENTUCKY,

A. J. ALDEN, McLANESBORO', ILLINOIS, says he had the scald bead eight years, and was hald, but by the liberal use of Wood's Hair Restorative, he now bas a rich, glossy head of hair.
